

Visiting Assistant Professor in European Art History
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, RIVERSIDE

The Department of the History of Art at the University of California, Riverside expects a temporary part-time opening for a visiting assistant professor during the 2018-2019 academic year, pending final budgetary approval. The salary for each course is approximately $8,000. Courses listed below may vary in number and quarter of offering. M.A. and one year of teaching experience at the college or university level is required. Based on qualifications we may consider splitting the appointment between individuals. Review of applications will begin June 9, 2018, and continue until positions are filled.

Teaching responsibilities include one lower-division and one upper-division course in Spring quarter, 2019; other responsibilities include advising students and participating in department service.

Submit applications including a cover letter, CV, teaching evaluations, diversity statement, and two letters of recommendation, electronically via url: <https://aprecruit.ucr.edu/apply/JPF00922>. Electronic submission is strongly preferred.

Applicants who use Interfolio may utilize a feature provided by the Interfolio Service to allow Interfolio to upload their letters directly into AP Recruit. Applicants can input an Interfolio-generated email address in place of their letter writer's email address. Interfolio refers to this as Online Application Deliveries. The following link on the Interfolio website shows how to set this up. <http://help.interfolio.com/entries/xx-Uploading-Letters-to-an-Online-Application-System>
